Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

SALONICA, in European Turkey, Sept. 23.

THE Janiſſaries who have revolted, for ſome time paſt have made great intreaties to this government for their pardon, and threatened to ſet the city on fire if it was not granted; but their demand not being complied with, they have ſeparated into ſmall parties, and commit great exceſſes. They have aſſaſſinated a great number of paſſengers, among whom was a Greek merchant, from whom they took 1500 piaſtres. Six other travellers of the ſame nation have been maſſacred on the banks of the river Verdar, after having defended themſelves with great reſolution, and ſlain eight of the Janiſſaries on the ſpot. Purſuit is making after theſe robbers, but without effect. An officer and two horſemen were killed in an attack of them. It is thought that a pardon will be granted to them by the government, for fear of greater exceſſes.

Naples, Oct. 13. The number of Barbary Rovers upon our coaſts, ſo far from leſſening, increaſes daily in our neighbouring ſeas: This is, as we have often ſaid, in conſequence of a treaty of peace, lately concluded between them and the Republick of Venice. Our trading ſhips are afraid to ſtir out to ſea without convoy. This evil will continue till ſuch time as the maritime powers in Italy unite in alliance againſt theſe pirates. A ſubſidy treaty with the Grand Maſter of the Order of Malta, would be of great advantage to our commerce, as well as that of the neighbouring States.

Hamburgh, Oct. 26. A letter from very good hands adviſes, that the reports of the warlike preparations making by the Turks, were mere inventions; that the Ottoman Porte had ſent proviſions and ſtores to the frontier places on the ſide of Poland and Ruſſia, which was only a neceſſary precaution, as during the laſt war between the Chriſtian Powers, thoſe places were greatly neglected, and are now in very bad condition.

Warſaw, Oct. 26. The King has great pleaſure in ſeeing the diſcontented grandees change their ſentiments, and ſucceſſively come and acknowledge him: It is ſuppoſed that by the time of the coronation there will not be three of them who will perſiſt in the oppoſition. It is ſaid that his Majeſty is reſolved to appear in a Spaniſh habit on the day of his coronation.

Dreſden, Oct. 26. A poor woman, who has been afflicted with a dropſy for ſix years, to ſuch a degree that her body was eight ells in circumference, and who, not able to ſtir, was entirely confined to her bed, is lately dead; and after her deceaſe they drew off 164 pints of water from her body.

Copenhagen, Nov. 3. The tempeſt on the 23d of laſt month has done a conſiderable deal of damage. One of our Eaſt-India ſhips was ſhipwrecked, as ſhe lay at anchor in the Sound, and her cargo is all gone to the bottom. Two Dutch veſſels, laden with corn, were caſt away at Katte Gat, but part of their cargo is ſaved. A veſſel from Jutland, overſet by contrary winds, ſunk with all the perſons on board, among whom were ſeveral paſſengers.

Genoa, Oct. 30. We have juſt received advice that the malecontents of Corſica have begun to remove their principal effects into the mountains of Nebbio, where they have ſeveral ſtrong holds, frequently occupied by them in former occaſions. In the mean time, Paoli has given orders to bring in all the horſes they can, in order to form a numerous cavalry, to oppoſe the landing of French troops upon the iſland.

Warſaw, Nov. 6. Our Sovereign continues to give daily proofs of his judgment and moderation in every part of his conduct, and preſages glory and felicity to a people who have unanimouſly choſen him their protector. We ſuſpect a ſtrong attachment in him to the Engliſh nation, from ſeveral circumſtances; he greatly affects the manners, cuſtoms, and faſhions, of that country; Mr. Wroughton, the Britiſh Reſident, is his conſtant companion, and we juſt hear that his Majeſty has appointed Mr. Montague (an Engliſh Advocate) his Charge des Affaires at the Court of London.

Vienna, Nov. 17. The Baron de Rebentiſch, the Pruſſian General, is gone through this city in his way to Portugal, where he is going to ſerve in the army of his Moſt Faithful Majeſty, with the approbation of the King of Pruſſia.

Genoa, Nov. 17. A Genoeſe pink, commanded by Capt. Berlingeri, which has been to Baſtia with proviſions and warlike ſtores, is driven by ſtreſs of weather into Leghorn. They write from the laſt mentioned place, that the trade between the Corſicans and Baſtia is renewed, a great quantity of proviſions having been carried into that town without oppoſition from Paſchal Paoli.

Liſbon, Nov. 6. The day before yeſterday an ordinance was publiſhed by the King, dated the 24th of laſt month, by which his Majeſty, willing to eſtabliſh public tranquility, has judged proper to renew the antient ordinances concerning perſons who reſiſt the officers of juſtice. All thoſe who in that caſe have recourſe to arms, are from henceforth to be puniſhed as criminals convicted of high treaſon, although the officers may not have been wounded. They are likewiſe to be impriſoned for uſing abuſive language towards them, and even to ſuffer corporal puniſhment, according to the nature of the injury, and the quality of the perſon offended.

LONDON, November 22.

It is confidently ſaid, an exchange of Admirals on the Weſt-India ſtation will ſoon take place.

It is ſaid a Bill is now actually preparing to oblige the various foreigners now reſiding in Great Britain, to enter their names, countries, and method of life, in the County Regiſter where they live; the profits of which are to be applied to national benefit, and the expences of ſtate.

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh.

"The Court and Senate have taken all poſſible pains to ſhew that the Lieutenant Mirowitſch was not ſuch an inſtrument as ſome apprehended him to be. For this purpoſe the ſentence, which was pronounced againſt him the 20th, and executed the 26th of September laſt, has been publiſhed, with ſome pieces annexed, giving a circumſtantial account of the traitor, his crimes, thoſe of his family, and the deſigns he propoſed to execute by the deſperate attempt that coſt him his life, as alſo of the methods he employed to ſeduce thoſe that were his accomplices. We alſo learn in this trial, that his principal aſſociate, Apollo Uſchakow, who had bound himſelf by an oath, taken at the great altar in the church of Caſan, to aſſiſt him in ſetting Prince Ivan on the throne, was drowned on the road to Smolenſko, the 10th of June laſt. The following paragraph, among others in this piece, is worthy of attention: "As the violent death of the unfortunate Prince Ivan was the immediate conſequence of the deſperate attempt of Mirowitſch, ſo muſt this officer be manifeſtly conſidered, as the principal cauſe of this aſſaſſination, nay even regarded as the murderer of that unhappy Prince." This piece of caſuiſtry, which is deſigned as a ſoporifick for the conſciences of the Governor of Sluſſelburgh, and of thoſe that directed his hand to ſtrike the fatal blow, is not looked upon here, as either clear or ſatisfactory. As it is, at leaſt, certain, that the unfortunate Prince had no hand in, and no knowledge of this conſpiracy, it is hard to conceive how any other blood than that of Mirowitſch could, with juſtice, be ſhed to expiate its guilt. This new and commodious method of transferring guilt is, however, ſigned by five Biſhops; they are, indeed, Ruſſian Biſhops."

We are informed there is not any intention to raiſe more regiments on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment.

Nov. 27. Yeſterday there was a great Court at St. James's, when his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter made his firſt appearance at Court under that title; his Royal Highneſs went in a grand new coach, attended by the Gentlemen of his houſhold. And it being his Royal Highneſs's birth day, their Majeſties and the Princeſs Dowager of Wales received the compliments of the Nobility and Gentry on the occaſion.

It is ſaid his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter intends to make the tour of Hanover very early in the ſpring.

Experiments are now making at Portſmouth on divers kinds of timber lately imported from North America, which, if found anſwerable, we hear will be made uſe of in the dock-yards, and the importation of American timber encouraged by the Government.

Dec. 8. On Tueſday laſt arrived at Pool the Banks, Capt. Kerley, from Newfoundland; on board of which ſhip came Capt. Dowſon, and four of his crew, whoſe ſhip, the Volunteer, of London, foundered in her paſſage from Virginia, laden with tobacco, in lat. 41. 57. long. 59 18. The crew were taken on board the Donald, Capt. William Mores, from Virginia for Glaſgow, from whom Capt. Kerley took them on board his veſſel.

What follows from Granada, was designed for the Gazette two Weeks ago, but, for Want of Room, obliged to be deferred.

GRANADA, December 15.

On Thurſday laſt, about half an hour after ten o'clock, landed here, from on board his Majeſty's ſtoreſhip the Tobago, under a general ſalute from the cannon of Fort Royal, and the ſhips in the Bay and Harbour, his Excellency Robert Melvill, Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Southern Caribbee-Iſlands of Granada, the Granadines, Dominico, St. Vincent, and Tobago, &c. &c. &c. and Brigadier-General of his Majeſty's forces in America.

His Excellency was received on his landing by Governor Scott, the former commander in chief, attended by the civil officers, and a great number of the principal inhabitants of the Iſland, with all the marks of reſpect due to his dignity and perſonal merit; from whence he proceeded to the government-houſe, the ſtreet being lined with his Majeſty's troops in garriſon; where his commiſſion of Captain-General and Governor in Chief, &c. &c. &c. was publiſhed: After which he received, with great politeneſs, the compliments of the gentlemen preſent. And, we are informed, he was then ſworn in council into his high office, with all the uſual ſolemnities; after which his Excellency and a great number of gentlemen were elegantly entertained by Governor Scott.

We are told, that the following gentlemen are appointed to be his Majeſty's Council for the aforeſaid Iſlands, viz.

The Hon. Francis Gore, Lieutenant-General of all the ſaid Iſlands.

The Hon. George Scott, Lieutenant-Governor of Dominico.

The Hon. Joſeph Higginſon, Lieutenant-Governor of St. Vincent.

The Hon. Alexander Brown, Lieutenant-Governor of Tobago.

James Brebner, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of the ſaid Iſlands.

Edward Horn, Eſq; Attorney-General, Edmund Griffiths, Eſq; Solicitor-General, Richard Burke, Eſq; Receiver-General, for ſaid Iſlands.

St. JOHN (in ANTIGUA) January 2.

Letters from Granada mention, that the French Notaries and Lawyers had been ordered to deliver up their clients papers, and the records.---It is ſaid that the terms of ſettlement at Tobago were ſo little liked by the Barbadians, that none of them could be prevailed upon to become ſettlers there.

BOSTON, February 18.

A few Days ago, at a Houſe at the North End, the Nurſe having left a Child in a Room below, while ſhe went above-ſtairs, it fell into the Fire, and ſcorched its Face and Hands to a great Degree: But what rendered it ſtill more an Object of Commiſeration was, a live Coal got down its Back, which was not diſcovered till a conſiderable Time afterwards when it was undreſſed, the Fire having penetrated almoſt to the Bone.---It is hoped Accidents of this Kind will be a ſufficient Inducement to Nurſes to be very careful how to leave Children expoſed to ſuch Caſualties.

We hear from New-London, that on the 1ſt Inſtant a Child of Mr. Samuel Calkin's, of that Place, fell into the Fire, and burnt itſelf to that Degree that it died immediately.

By a Letter from Cape St. Nichola, dated Dec. 28, we are informed, that out of 700 Acadians that went from theſe Colonies, 400 are dead. They had been put to many Difficulties; when they had landed they had no Houſe to put their Heads in, till they built one themſelves; they were kept to work like Negroes, allowed no Land, and had no Money for their Work.

NEW-LONDON, February 15.

The Wreck of an old Veſſel was found on Shore at Gooſe Iſland, near Guilford, on Monday laſt; ſhe had been ſheathed, and appeared to have been caſt away about a Month: Her Loading was Flax-ſeed and Mackarel; ſome Barrels of the latter have drove on Shore, with ſome Bedding and Cloaths, among which is a Gold-laced Jacket. The dead Body of a Man was found on board, dreſſed in Cloth coloured Broadcloth, with Boots on.---We can't learn the Size of the Veſſel, nor any further Particulars relating to her.

PROVIDENCE, February 9.

Capt. Angell, who lately arrived here from Montego-Bay, in Jamaica, informs us, That a few Days before he ſailed from thence, which was on the 17th of December laſt, Advice was received from Spaniſh-Town, that the Negroes in and about that Place, who are very numerous, had formed a horrid Conſpiracy for maſſacring all the white Inhabitants, and taking Poſſeſſion of their Eſtates; for which Purpoſe they had actually provided a large Magazine of Arms and Ammunition of almoſt every Kind, at a little Diſtance from the Town, which being happily diſcovered, their whole Plot was laid open, before it was quite ripe for Execution: That many of the Ringleaders were apprehended and ſecured, and would ſoon meet with their Deſerts; and that every neceſſary Precaution was purſuing, to preſerve the Tranquility of the Iſland.---Theſe rebellious Negroes, it appears, intended to have begun their Operations on Chriſtmas Day, by murdering all the white People in Spaniſh-Town, and after that to march to Kingſton, and every other Place, and repeat the ſame cruel Scene, till they had gained the Maſtery of the whole Iſland, in which they expected the chearful Aſſiſtance of the numerous Bodies of their Fellow-Slaves. Notwithſtanding this ſeaſonable Diſcovery, it was expected at Montego-Bay, that Marſhal Law would be declared in a few Days.

NEWPORT, February 18.

Captain Coddington, from St. Euſtatia, informs us, that the Dutch Inhabitants are ſtill very uneaſy on Account of the Settlement which the French are effecting near Surrinam, and that it was reported the French Settlers amount to near 30,000 Perſons.

PHILADELPHIA, March 7.

Saturday laſt Captain Egdon arrived here from London, but having a long Paſſage, brings no later Advices than we had before. On the 24th ult. he ſpoke with Captain Bell, in the Ship Catherine, from New-York for the Havannah, out four Days, all well.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated Nov. 30.

---"The Minority; by Death and other Accidents, are mouldered away almoſt to nothing. The Miniſtry are now employed in preparing ſome Bills againſt next Seſſions, which will render them very popular; and they have, in particular, under their ſerious Conſideration, the Purchaſe of the Superiority of the Iſle of Man, which hath been, for many Years, the Grand Theatre of Smuggling. This will increaſe the Revenue to a prodigious Degree. I have alſo the Pleaſure to acquaint you, that, by the unuſual Care of the Officers of the Revenue, and by ſome excellent Regulations lately made in it, as well as by the great Increaſe of our Commerce in general, the Sinking Fund hath this Year much exceeded Two Millions; a Sum which a Man, in high Office, told me the other Day, neither their Hopes nor Wiſhes ever preſumed to reach before."

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, dated January 31, 1765.

"A Party of Mohawks, ſent from this Poſt with a Meſſage to the Shawaneſe Chiefs, are returned, without going to the Shawaneſe Towns, having met, about 30 Miles from hence, Beneviſſica, a Shawaneſe Chief, coming here with the Virginia Voluntiers, who went from Muſkingham to the Lower Shawaneſe Town, to fetch their Relations, who were Priſoners there. The Mohawks therefore returned back with them, and delivered the Meſſage here.

"Beneviſſica informs, that when he left home, the Chiefs of his Nation, who went laſt Summer to viſit the French, were within a Day's Journey of their Town, with about 50 Frenchmen, who all returned home, on hearing that the Shawaneſe had entered into Terms of Peace with the Engliſh.

"Beneviſſica ſays, his Reaſons for coming here now, were to fulfil his Promiſe made at Muſkingham, viz. to take Care of the Virginians, aſſiſt them in getting their Relations, and ſee them ſafe to this Place; and likewiſe to hear from ourſelves, whether we are ſtill firm for Peace; as their Nation gave no Credit to the Reports of the Red Hawk and his Party.

"The Virginians have brought in Nine Captives; they were all Froſt-bit before they reached Beaver Creek, where a Serjeant and 12 Men, with Horſes and Proviſions, were ſent to their Aſſiſtance. The extream Cold has been ſeverely felt by the Priſoners, conſiſting chiefly of old Women and young Children. Beneviſſica was of great Service to our People in his Country, and on their March through the Woods. He ſays that the reſt of the Priſoners were obliged to ſtop till the Spring at Wakatamiki, on Account of the deep Snow; but that a Number of Hoſtages will immediately arrive here, to replace thoſe who fooliſhly ran away.

"The Weather has been ſo uncommonly ſevere at this Poſt, that both Rivers have been paſſable on the Ice theſe ſix Weeks.

Liſt of CAPTIVES delivered up by the Shawaneſe at Mackwajack, and arrived at Fort Pitt, January 5, 1765, all taken in Virginia.

"Mary and Miriam Hamilton, Jane Gilmore, Mary Bird, Eliſabeth Yokam, Elizabeth Filkiſon, Elizabeth Counſman, Mary and David Williams."

At a Meeting of the HIBERNIA FIRE COMPANY of this City, on the 4th Inſtant, from Motives of Frugality, and in order to reduce the preſent high Price of Mutton, and encourage the Breweries of Pennſylvania, it was agreed not to purchaſe any Lamb this Seaſon, or drink any foreign Beer.

In order to encourage and increaſe the Growth of Sheep in this Province, it was agreed, at a Meeting of the FELLOWSHIP FIRE-COMPANY, on the 4th Inſtant, that none of their Members do buy or expend any Lamb Meat in their Families the enſuing Seaſon.

By Captain Batſon from Barbados we are informed, that a Ship from Londonderry, bound to New-York, was blown off the Coaſt, and arrived ſafe there; alſo the Ship London, bound to Virginia from Liſbon, in Diſtreſs; and that three Veſſels from New-England, had likewiſe got in there diſmaſted.------He alſo adviſes, that a Brig from Barbados to Ireland, after being nine Weeks at Sea, was obliged to put back in great Diſtreſs.

Captain Batſon, in Lat. 36, Long. 73, on the 25th of laſt Month, ſpoke a Brig from Jamaica to this Port, which had loſt the Head of her Mainmaſt.----On the 26th, with the Brig Nancy, Captain Brice, bound to Maryland from Cork, out ten Weeks. On the 27th, with a Snow, belonging to Glaſgow, bound to Antigua from Virginia, in Lat. 36: 34, all well.---And on the 28th, in Lat. 37, with a Schooner from Jamaica for Virginia.

March 14, 1765. NUMB. 1890.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Mr. HALL, Philadelphia, March 8, 1765.

IF you think the following worthy a Place in your Paper, the Public are heartily welcome to my Endeavours to promote the Knowledge of it by a Publication.

TRAVELLING, the other Day, in Company with a reputable Farmer, he happened accidentally to inform me, that he has at Times been ſubject to that excruciating Diſorder the Gravel, and was parsicularly afflicted with it ſome time ago, when upon a long Journey from his Home: Fortunately for him, in the Courſe of his Progreſs, he met with a certain Gentleman, whom he believes to be a Doctor, who, upon knowing his Caſe, acquainted him, that he had heard of a Remedy which had been very beneficial to ſome, and he doubted not would do him Service.----Take, ſays he, the Saw-duſt proceeding from good mellow Pine, boil it in clear Spring Water, let it ſettle, and then ſtrain it off; drink freely of this, and you will ſoon find Relief.-----The Perſon, glad to alleviate his Miſery, tried the Experiment, and in ten Hours after found it gave him Eaſe: He uſed the Drink three or four Days, and declares his Pain quite left him, and that ſince that Time he has ſcarce felt any thing of his ſaid Diſorder.

I confeſs the Remedy ſeems ſimple; but as I doubt not the Truth of what the Gentleman has aſſerted, I hope the Freedom I take on this Occaſion may be excuſed.----- What confirms me in the Belief of its Efficacy is, the reputed Virtues of Turpentine, the Uſes of which, according to Chambers, "are innumerable," and is particularly "famous for clearing the urinary Paſſages, and as ſuch, is preſcribed for Obſtructions in the Reins," &c.---- Now, as this Subſtance is the well known Product of the Pine, it ſeems to me reaſonable to think, that the Pine Duſt muſt contain of the oily Nature, and that therefore it may have the good Effect above-mentioned.

If, upon Trial, it ſhould prove as beneficial to any others, as it has done to the Perſon who gave me the Intelligence, my End in giving you this Trouble will be fully anſwered. Who am,

Your Friend and Cuſtomer,
CIVIS.

N. B. As they ſaw Abundance of Pine in the Jerſeys, the Duſt may be had in great Plenty; three Quarts is a ſuitable Proportion to a Gallon of Water, and may be ſweetened, to make it palatable.

 Having ſhewn the above to a Friend, who underſtands theſe Matters, he thought the good Intention would be ſtill further anſwered by the following Addition.

THE good Effects which many have experienced of late Years from the Uſe of a Tea made with Pine Buds in thoſe painful Diſeaſes, the Gravel, Aſthma or Phthiſick, by which ſome have been entirely cured, and others more relieved than by any other Medicine, are ſufficient to recommend them to the Notice of Mankind, eſpecially at this Time, when they are in their Prime, being now full of the fineſt Parts of the Turpentine, in which their Virtue principally conſiſts, and which they loſe as they grow older; for which Reaſon, thoſe who are afflicted with the above Diſorders, ſhould be careful to have them picked immediately, as the Seaſon will ſoon be paſt, and probably there will be few that are dried left in the Country, as there are Commiſſions come over from England to purchaſe large Quantities of them, occaſioned chiefly by an American Gentleman, as well known for his Benevolence as his Situation in Life, when lately there, having communicated his Experience of their Virtues, and diſtributed them to the Diſtreſſed freely, according to his uſual Cuſtom, as long as he had any left, to their great Relief, and the Beginning a new Branch of Trade.

N. B. The Tea ſhould be middling ſtrong, and a Pint thereof drank every Morning or Evening, or both, when the Diſeaſe is violent, for ſeveral Weeks or Months. In drying the Buds, they ſhould be ſpread thin for a few Days in the Shade, till well dried, or they will ſpoil when packed up together.

TO be ſold by public Vendue, on the Premiſes, the firſt Day of April next, a Plantation, containing about 100 Acres of extraordinary good Land, ſituate in Radnor Townſhip, Cheſter County, about 12 Miles from Philadelphia, on the Provincial Road leading from Philadelphia to Lancaſter; there is on ſaid Place, a good ſquare Log Houſe, Log Barn, Stable, and Cow-houſe, a young Orchard, with 100 Apple Trees, and ſeveral Peach Trees, ſeveral Acres of very good watered Meadow, and a conſiderable Quantity more may readily be made, about 60 Acres cleared, under good Fence, the greateſt Part freſh, and exceeding good for Grain or Graſs; the Woodland is extraordinary well timbered. The Purchaſer paying two Thirds of the Purchaſe Money, may have ſome Time to pay the Remainder. The Title is indiſputable.

WHEREAS there has lately been imported into this Country, a Book, entituled, "A Scripture Account of "the Faith and Practice of Chriſtians," done in the Form of a Common-place Book to the Holy Scriptures, by the Rev. Mr. Gaſton; and as the Merit of the Performance is not ſufficiently known to obtain a ſpeedy Sale, we whoſe Names are underwritten, have been requeſted to review and examine it; and after Peruſal, being called upon for our Opinions, cannot in Juſtice help teſtifying our hearty Approbation of the Work. The Scriptures on the ſeveral Heads in Divinity, both general and particular, are preſented at one View; the Texts are pertinently applied to the Points they naturally prove under each Head; the whole judiciouſly digeſted, and finiſhed with great Labour: And therefore we do think ourſelves bound to recommend it as a Work of Merit, ſound and uſeful, as a Common-place Book to the Holy Scriptures, both to Miniſters and private Chriſtians, who incline ſincerely to ſearch the Oracles of the living God. SAMUEL FINLEY, D. D. RICHARD TREAT, JOHN BAINARD, CHARLES BEATTY, Miniſters.

On Monday laſt arrived here Captain MONTGOMERY, in a ſhort Paſſage from Cork, by whom we have the following Advices, viz.

WARSAW, December 5.

THE day before yeſterday the Diet aſſembled, and the election of the Marſhal was made the ſame afternoon, in the perſon of Count Malachowſki, Staroſt of Pehicaw. Yeſterday, by the recommendation, and in the preſence of the two chambers, the three vacant ſeats of Great Chancellor, and Vice Chancellor of the crown, and of Vice Chancellor of Lithuania, were diſpoſed of. This ceremony was performed with great dignity, the King, from the throne, making a moſt eloquent ſpeech upon the occaſion.

Dec. 7. The Diet continues their deliberations with the greateſt tranquility; they have confirmed all the acts that have been made during the interreign; and are at preſent chiefly employed in arranging the taxes which are to be levied on the different orders of the Republic, and in taking meaſures to improve the revenues, and to inſure the iſland commerce.

Genoa, Dec. 17. On the 13th ſeveral tranſports, with French troops on board, arrived at Baſtia; but as M. de Marbeuf was not arrived, the troops had not begun to land.

Peterſburgh, Nov. 27. It is certain that her Imperial Majeſty in ereſts herſelf ſtrongly for the Proteſtants of Poland; and her Ambaſſador at Warſaw is authorized, in conſequence, to act in concert, upon this object, with the Proteſtant miniſters reſiding there on the part of the Kings of Pruſſia, Great-Britain and Denmark.

From the Viſtula, Dec. 6. The Turks and the Tartars continue approaching, by little and little, the frontiers of Poland; and we believe it will not be long before the world becomes acquainted with the reſolution of the Divan, which has hitherto been kept ſurpriſingly ſecret.

Warſaw Dec. 11. It is aſſured, that a box arrived here lately with 100,000 ducats, ſent as a preſent by the Empreſs of Ruſſia to a perſon of the higheſt diſtinction, who is not named.

Genoa, Dec. 17. We learn from Albenga, that ſome differences having ariſen between the Corporations of that city and Ceriale, the peaſants of the latter had taken arms, and entered the territory of Albenga, to the number of 800, where they cut down the Olive trees, the Vines, and Fruit trees, and did other damage. The government have appointed M. Ange Aſdente, a noble Genoeſe, to go and terminate this diſagreement.

Vienna, Dec. 12. Some late advices from Tranſylvania, confirm thoſe which we had received before, viz. that an epidemic diſtemper rages amongſt the Ottoman troops. As the court is uncertain of the real object of the motions of the ſaid troops, great precautions are taken at all events; and we rely upon the known vigilance of General Haddick, who commands in that province.

Ratiſbon, Dec. 14. A memorial has been drawn up by order of the Evangelical directory, in favour of the Auſtrian proteſtants ſettled in Tranſylvania, in which their wretched ſituation is deſcribed, and repreſentation is requeſted to be made to their Imperial Majeſties, to obtain permiſſion, that they may retire in ſafety, to ſuch ſtates of the Empire, where they will be at liberty to exerciſe their religion.

LONDON.

Dec. 29. We are informed that the Kent, Capt. Mills, which ſet ſail from Spithead on the 4th of June laſt, with Lord Clive on board, was ſpoke with by an American veſſel beyond the line, in ſix weeks and two days after the above date, and all well; ſo that it is thought his Lordſhip muſt have arrived at Bengal the beginning of this month, the firſt part of the paſſage being ſo very quick.

Yeſterday Montford Browne, Eſq; had the honour of kiſſing their Majeſties hands, on being appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Weſt-Florida.

A gentleman of immenſe fortune, in the city, ſhot himſelf at his country houſe on Wedneſday laſt. The reaſon of it is not yet diſcovered.

A few days ſince, as a certain great nobleman was carrying in a chair through St. James's Park, a mob gathered, and followed it a conſiderable way, and continually called out, "No B-----;" at laſt the chair was ordered to ſtop, and upon its being opened, the nobleman ſtood up, and demanded what they wanted with him? This queſtion, and ſome of the foot guards being near, ſo intimidated the mobility, that they immediately diſperſed, and left the great perſonage to proceed to the place where he was going, without farther moleſtation.

Jan. 1. It is ſtrongly aſſerted, that the late ſudden orders for a double guard in our dock yards, and watch on board the ſhips in the harbour, were in conſequence of information given, that ſome emiſſaries were engaged to attempt ſetting fire to the ſame; which information was corroborated by ſome letters intercepted, and ſo the ſcheme became fruſtrated.

It is reported ſome extraordinary advices are received from the court of Spain, which has occaſioned a council to be held: Some people imagine things in the Bay of Honduras are not rightly ſettled; however, orders of a very ſpirited nature have been ſent to the Governor of Jamaica, as well as to the Admiral on that ſtation.

His Majeſty's royal bounty of one thouſand pounds, is ordered to be diſtributed among indigent houſe-keepers within the city and liberty of Weſtminſter.

There are parties of marines again to be put on board his Majeſty's ſhips at Portſmouth. On board the ſhips of the line, a Captain, firſt and ſecond Lieutenants, and 40 men; on board the frigates, a Lieutenant only, and we hear 30 men.

Jan. 3. Notwithſtanding reports to the contrary, we hear that only one million will be raiſed for the ſervice of the year enſuing.

Jan. 5. Certain advices are received, that the Spaniards have already formed one encampment on the borders of Portugal, near Almeida, and are in great forwardneſs with another, to conſiſt of fifteen battalions, and twenty four ſquadrons. The King of Portugal has ordered all his officers to join their corps.

Private letters from Cadiz ſay, that 4 ſhips of the line, three frigates and a bomb ketch, are fitting out in that port, intended, it is thought, for an expedition againſt the Portugueſe ſettlements in the Brazils.

Advices from Naples of the 4th ſay, that to their own misfortunes, occaſioned by the tumbling down of their houſes, and the inundations of their rivers, are now added the aſſurances, that an epidemical diſtemper is broke out again among them in ſeveral places.

Laſt night an expreſs arrived at the Secretary of State's office, and this morning, we hear, the ſame was laid before his Majeſty: It is ſaid to come from France, and to have brought a concluſive agreement relative to certain matters lately conteſted.

They write from the Hague, in letters of the 27th ult. that a treaty of alliance and friendſhip is on the point of being ſigned between the Courts of Ruſſia and Denmark.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Jan. 2.

"This day was paid off at Spithead the Thunderer man of war, and remains with the Phœnix and Solebay frigate.

"The talk in ſome papers of a fleet fitting out from this place, is entirely without foundation."

Tueſday laſt his Excellency Count Seilern, the Imperial ambaſſador, received important diſpatches from the Court of Vienna, at his houſe in Charles-ſtreet, St. James's-ſquare.

We have the greateſt ſatisfaction in informing the public (and we flatter ourſelves have good authority for it) that their Majeſties, ſenſibly affected at the wounds given to thouſands of their Britiſh manufacturing ſubjects, by the wear of French manufactures, have not only themſelves determined never to wear any thing whatſoever of that kind, but to give the ſame all diſcountenance imaginable at their Court.

A remarkable old gold watch, ſaid to be upwards of 200 years old, is come to England, to be repaired for the preſent King of Poland: A clear demonſtration of the ſuperiority of workmanſhip centered in this kingdom.

A ſpeedy commencement of hoſtilities on the coaſt of Guiney is now looked upon as hardly avoidable, conſidering the naval ſtrength of the French on that ſtation, who are actually ſaid to have five men of war of the line, beſides frigates and tranſports, with a conſiderable number of land forces on board.

We are informed, the laſt Weſt-India mail diſpatched, contained orders for Sir William Burnaby to grant a ſufficient convoy from the ſhips of his ſquadron to the Britiſh logwood cutters in the Bay of Honduras, with poſitive orders to repel any offered indignities by force.

They write from Leghorn, that the Court of Turin have appointed five xebecks of war to ſail for Sardinia, to watch the motions of the French frigates appointed to cruize for ſome weeks in the Straits of St. Bonifacio.

The ſhips of war which were ready to ſail for the Newfoundland ſtation, we hear, will be countermanded, on account of the arrival of Commodore Palliſer.

The laſt letters from Liſbon adviſe, that four large tranſports, under convoy of a King's ſhip, ſailed from the Tagus the 10th of December, with materials and ordnance ſtores for his Portugueſe Majeſty's weſtern iſlands, where ſome additional forts are to be erected.

Extract of a letter from Plymouth Dock, dated Jan. 1.

"An Expreſs arrived yeſterday morning at Plymouth dock, with ſailing orders for the Edgar, [who has been lying 15 weeks in the Sound.] The crew are exceedingly ſickly, and their diſorder ſeems epidemical. It is ſaid there are near 70 upon the ſick liſt; owing principally to want of freſh air, the weather in winter time being ſo bad in the Sound, that it is very ſeldom ſhips can open their lower tier of ports.

"The Edgar is to ſail in company with the Shannon and Hound to the coaſt of Guiney, to demoliſh a fort called Abralca, which the French have erected oppoſite to ours in the river Gambia; ſhe is not to touch at the Engliſh ſettlements at all, but, after touching at Cape Coaſt and Anamaboa, make the beſt of her way back, without going to Jamaica.

"Commodore Graves, who commands the Edgar, is to hoiſt a broad pendant as ſoon as he ſails."

Letters from Vienna intimate, that notwithſtanding the frequent aſſurances given their Envoy at Conſtantinople, of the pacifick intentions of the Grand Signior, and that a Turkiſh Ambaſſador is ſoon to arrive among them, their Miniſtry are ſtill not without great apprehenſions of the Porte, and that the preſent movements of the Turks and Tartars are intended againſt them, affairs being, in all appearance, ſo happily ſettled in Poland, that there can be no occaſion for marching that way.

They write from Hamburgh, that two ſhips which were ready to ſail with warlike ſtores for Barbary, have had their cargoes unladen, at the inſtance of the Spaniſh Miniſter in that city, who proteſted, in his maſter's name, againſt any aſſiſtance being ſent to the enemies of Spain.

The Admiral of the Ottoman fleet has carried into the port of Conſtantinople two Neapolitian veſſels, whoſe crews had murdered their Captains, and were preparing to go a pirating when he took them.

We hear that a number of acres of land will this ſpring be lotted out, to be ſown with hemp, to try the experiment of the culture thereof on the waſte grounds of this kingdom.

Cork Jan. 10. A rumour is ſpread here of ſome diſcoveries being made of an extraordinary nature; but as we know not what foundation there is for ſuch rumour, we ſhall defer ſaying any thing on that head. However, we know the troops quartered here have orders to march under arms to church next Sunday, and to be ſupplied with 16 rounds of powder and ball each man.

DUBLIN, January 12.

Extract of a Letter from Waterford, Jan. 9. 1765.

"We are in great hopes here, that the whole plot of the White Boys will be diſcovered, which you may rely on was no leſs than an intended rebellion.---Lord Carrick brought a woman here laſt Saturday, who, it is expected, will diſcover the whole. We have a French officer in priſon here."

PORTSMOUTH, (New-Hampſhire) Feb. 18.

Laſt Tueſday Mrs. Sarah Davis, of this town, was again tapped for the Dropſy, by Dr. Cutter, which makes the twenty-third time ſhe has undergone that operation; the moſt remarkable inſtance ever known in this country before.

NEW-YORK, March 4.

Tueſday laſt, the Earl of Halifax Packet Boat, Capt. Bolderſon, ſailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

The ſame Day his Majeſty's Sloop of War the Gaſpey, Capt. Allen, arrived here from Halifax, after a tedious Paſſage of 4 Weeks. The following Ships of War were at Halifax when ſhe ſailed, viz. Romney, Aldborough, Senegal, Mermaid and Squirrel; and we hear the Coventry, Archibald Kennedy, Eſq; Commander; and the Garland-----St. John, Eſq; Commander, now in this Port, are to proceed as ſoon as fitted for Halifax, there to join the Squadron on that Station, under the Command of Lord Colvil, who, we are told, will, as ſoon as the Seaſon permits, proceed to Newfoundland, in order to watch the Motions of whatever French Ships may arrive there from Old France in the Spring.

ANNAPOLIS, February 21.

We have heard of ſeveral People lately falling through the Ice, and being drowned. Five Perſons, at different Times, were loſt in Buſh River.

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.

By the New-York Poſt we have the following Article from London, dated December 13.

On Monday evening laſt the ingenious Dr. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN arrived here from Philadelphia, in conſequence of an appointment from the General Aſſembly there, to aſſiſt in tranſacting the affairs of that province for the enſuing year.

Mr. HALL,

AS the comparative Merit of Mr. DICKINSON's printed SPEECH, and what is called Mr. Galloway's, has long ago been determined by the good People of this Province, who are certainly very capable Judges in their own Affairs, and not to be biaſſed by Authorities; any thing further on this Head may ſeem unneceſſary.

But Mr. Galloway, or it is rather to be preſumed ſome of his Friends, having lately in your Gazette, by Way of Character of his ſaid SPEECH, been pleaſed to re-print a Bookſeller's PUFF, or ADVERTISEMENT of it, which (to promote its Sale) might have been publiſhed in all the other News-Papers in England, as well as the LONDON CHRONICLE, for a Crown each; you will therefore be ſo kind as to oblige the Public with the more DISINTERESTED and honourable Account given of Mr. DICKINSON's SPEECH, by a Sett of Critics and Men of Learning, who have long ſuſtained the arduous Employment or Province of giving a MONTHLY REVIEW of all new Books publiſhed in England.

After mentioning the unhappy Diſputes that have long divided this "fine Province," and the late "extraordinary Step" which they juſtly ſay, many Gentlemen of Conſequence, beſides Mr. Dickinſon, ſo earneſtly oppoſed; theſe Writers conclude as follows.

"The Reaſons which induced the PHILADELPHIA MINORITY * to oppoſe the Petition for a Change of Government (as comprized in the Speech before us) are many, and, to us, weighty; but indeed we, at this Diſtance, cannot be ſuppoſed competent Judges. All that we, therefore, can ſay on the Subject of this Pamphlet is, that Mr. Dickinſon reaſons like A MAN OF EXTRAORDINARY GOOD SENSE, WITH THE KNOWLEDGE OF AN ABLE POLITICIAN, and THE FLEAING FLOW OF AN ACCOMPLISHED ORATOR. In fine, we will venture to rank this Oration with the many noble Pieces of Eloquence which have appeared in the Courſe of the Pennſylvania Debates, within theſe ten or twelve Years paſt, and which frequent Mention hath been made in our Review."

[See Monthly Review for October laſt.]

At a Meeting of the CROWN AND BEAVER FUR COMPANY, on the Eleventh Inſtant, it was agreed, for the better promoting of the Increaſe of Sheep in this Province, not to buy any Lamb this Seaſon.

We have certain Advice of the Snow Adventure, Captain Davidſon, from Antigua for this Port, being got into Bermuda having received ſo much Damage by the ſevere Gales of Wind we had on the 24th, 25th, and 26th of November laſt, that we had the Veſſel was to be condemned, and the Cargoe re-ſhipped in another Veſſel for this Place.

By Captain Yorke, from Antigua, we have an Account of the following Veſſels being blown off, and having got in there, viz. the Brig George, Captain Chevers, from Liverpool; and Schooner Unity, Captain Leſlie, from North-Carolina, both for this Harbour----The Snow Jenny, Capt. Mandeville, from Liverpool for New-York; and a Schooner, Captain Lyall, from Jamaica for North-Carolina----The Brig Nancy, William Fuller, from this Port for Sligo; and the Brig Dorothy, William Moody, from North Carolina to London, had alſo put in there; as had ſeveral others, the Names of which the Captain did not know.

Captain Barnes, for this Place from Tortola, was blown off the Coaſt, and put into Providence; where were ſeveral other Veſſels, likewiſe blown off, one of which Capt. Chace, of Virginia; the Names of the others we cannot learn.

The Captains Lake, Nuttle and Hathorn, are arrived at Cork from this Place; as is Captain Taylor at Waterford, from Maryland.

DOVE,

THAT noted Stallion, imported by Dr. Hamilton, and bred by Mr. Jackſon, a Gentleman very remarkable in the North of England, for the Breed of full ſized, high bred running Horſes. As there are many diſintereſted good Judges in this and the neighbouring Provinces, I refer the Owners of Mares to ſuch Gentlemen for a Deſcription of him, rather than to enter into any Encomiums of him myſelf. He is to cover with me this Seaſon (near Cheſter Church, on the Eaſtern Shore, about 27 Miles below Frederick, in Cecil County, and about 12 Miles above Kent Iſland) at Three Guineas as uſual, or an Equivalent. Some who are fond of early Colts, are reſolved to ſend their Mares late in March to Dove, he is now in good covering Order, ready to proceed to Buſineſs. Some who intend him Mares, have adviſed me to inſiſt on prompt Pay, as by that Means, no Doubt the Horſe will be much more at Leiſure to attend ſuch Cuſtomers, and fewer Mares in that Way will be more agreeable to me, and others concerned, than to undergo a tedious, and perhaps expenſive, Collection: I therefore expect, whoever ſends Mares to Dove, will either ſend the Pay with them, or when they take them away, at furtheſt.----As it is too true, that many who have good Eſtates, are ſcarce of Caſh theſe Times; in order to render the Affair more convenient, I will take Crop Tobacco at Market Price, and return the Ballance in Caſh; or I will accept Orders on good Men. I have four ſeparate Paſtures for Mares, with running Water, the drieſt Day in Summer, in two of them, which contain above 100 Acres. Strict Juſtice ſhall be ſhewn the Mares in every Reſpect; if any-body can really ſuppoſe to the contrary, I am ſo far from ſoliciting his Cuſtom, that I deſire to avoid it. It is very certain Dove was much crowded with Mares before he left the Weſtern Shore, laſt Seaſon, and as he came over here late, it cannot be ſuppoſed the Gentlemen who ſent Mares on this Shore, could have a ſufficient Chance of the Seaſon, ſuch Mares as did not prove with Foal by him, on this Shore, ſhall have Dove this Seaſon gratis, provided they ſend them before the Middle of April, or after the Middle of June. WILLIAM DAMES.

N. B. While I keep Dove, I am fully determined to keep no other Stallion, which will prevent my Paſtures being too much crowded with Mares. ✠ 11 W.

IT is reported that great alterations will be made in our finances at the beginning of the new-year, as well as in the adminiſtration of the hoſpitals, &c. In the mean time it is certain, that M. de Laverdy, Comptroller General of the Finances, has ſo prudently managed all things, that the King's coffers are now full, and many debts paid off.

Warſaw, Dec. 5. The Pruſſian ambaſſador has delivered his letters of recal, and will leave this place in a day or two. His Majeſty has preſented him with a picture richly ſet with diamonds.

Madrid, Dec. 5. It is aſſured, that in conſequence of a report made to the King, that ſeveral veſſels from ſome northern ſtates were expected ſoon to paſs the ſtraits of Gibraltar, laden with warlike ſtores for the regencies of Barbary, his Majeſty has given orders for four ſhips of the line to put to ſea, in order to intercept thoſe convoys, and to ſeize the veſſels.

LONDON, December 11.

Private letters from Genoa mention, that it was thought the affairs of Corſica were in a fair way of being at laſt happily adjuſted, without landing any French troops upon the iſland; the Corſicans wanting nothing more than the enjoyment of their eſtates and liberties ſecured to them, which it was ſaid would be effected by the mediation of three foreign powers.

Some accounts from Poland ſay, that Prince Radzivil is in Germany, and his name eraſed from the liſt of Magnates: Whilſt others pretend, that one of the powers which has been the firſt to acknowledge the election of the new King, has declared in favour of that Prince, and even wrote on the ſubject to his Poliſh Majeſty in the moſt preſſing terms.

On Friday morning laſt, at 2 o' clock, being moon light, Mr. Parſons, of Stepple, in Eſſex, began to trot his mare 100 miles on the Eſſex road, for a conſiderable wager; he was allowed 14 hours to do it in, but performed it, with eaſe to himſelf and mare, in 13 hours and 28 minutes. The laſt 20 miles he trotted in 2 hours and 8 minutes.

The propoſed review of the waſte lands throughout England, we are informed, is with intent to raiſe a freſh ſtock of oak trees in the Kingdom, particularly in places not too remote from water carriage; the great neglect of which, and the waſte already made in the royal timber, is now thought a matter of conſequence not to be any longer overlook'd.

It is now ſaid by means of ſome late contracts with the merchants of Ireland for tallow to ſupply the navy, a ſaving will be made to the government, in this ſingle article only, of ſeveral thouſand pounds per annum.

Advice has been received from Liſbon, that the late accounts of Ally Cawn's having ſeized upon the Portugueſe ſettlements in the Eaſt Indies, are premature.

It is ſaid ſome agreeable news has lately been received from the Earl of Rochford, the Britiſh Ambaſſador at the court of Madrid.

It is ſaid the total expulſion of the ſociety of Jeſuits from Canada, or wherever they may have footing in any part of Britiſh America, has for ſome time paſt been upon the carpet.

Extract of a letter from the Viſtula, Nov. 18.

"The public are impatient to ſee the conſequence of the interview which the Hoſpodar of Moldavia, Agent of the Grand Signior, had lately with the Prince de Repnin, Ambaſſador of the Empreſs of Ruſſia. This interview muſt have been very ſignificant, from the following part of it, which has tranſpired: 'The Agent of his Highneſs communicated to the Ruſſian Ambaſſador, that he had expreſs orders to inform him, that the Porte could not behold with an indifferent eye, but even took umbrage at the Ruſſian troops ſtill continuing in Poland, and there occupying Staniſlawow, Brody, and other places bordering on the Ottoman territory, although the motive which the Empreſs alledged no longer ſubſiſted, ſince the election of a King was over: That therefore the Porte deſired, that the Ruſſian troops might not only without delay evacuate thoſe places, and in general all thoſe on the frontiers, but that they would likewiſe quit all Poland and Lithuania.

"The Prince de Repnin made anſwer to this declaration, which it ſeems came unexpectedly upon him, "That the Ruſſian troops entered Poland with no other view but to put an end to diſorder; that they were to continue there till the tranquility was firmly eſtabliſhed; and that the Ottoman Porte had nothing to fear on that head."

"Whereupon the Agent of the Grand Signior repeating his commiſſion with great vivacity, and in very forcible terms, the Prince de Repnin ſeemed to pay more attention thereto, and anſwered, "That he ſhould take arrangements for cauſing the places which the Prince of Moldavia had mentioned to be evacuated: That as to the ſecond point, relating to the march of all the Ruſſian troops which were in Poland, to return to their own country, he could not do any thing without a previous order from his Sovereign: That in the mean time he would make report to her Imperial Majeſty of what had paſſed in their interview, and inform the Agent of the reſolution which the Empreſs ſhould take thereon."

To this the latter replied: "I ſhall diſpatch ſome body "in the mean time towards the frontiers, that I may be "informed by an eye-witneſs, whether the Ambaſſador "fulfils his engagement."

The True Britton, Harriſon, from the Havannah to London, foundered, ſix weeks ago, off the Groyne, and 13 of the people periſhed. She had 70,000 l. on board for the merchants of this city. The inſurance on her was very conſiderable.

Wedneſday laſt Col. Thomas Townſend kiſſed his Majeſty's hand, and on Saturday he ſet out, by way of France, to take upon him the command of the iſland of Minorca, vacant by the death of Col. Crauford.

It is now reported, that one million only will be raiſed for the ſervice of next year, on an entire new plan, being a Lottery of ſix per cent. life annuities. Tickets at 10. l. each, and the blanks to be called 5, which will bring in the proprietors ſix ſhillings per annum during life.

Recent letters from Hamburgh contradict the report of any treaty, alliances, or accommodation having as yet been on the carpet between the courts of Verſailles and Warſaw; his Poliſh Majeſty being determined to enter into no engagements with any power, and France the leaſt of all, without conſulting the intereſts of his allies, and the advice of the States.

Dec. 13. Laſt night his Excellency the Prince de Mazzerano, the Spaniſh Ambaſſador, received two foreign diſpatches, at his houſe in Great Ormond-ſtreet, ſaid to be from his Catholic Majeſty's Miniſters at the courts of Vienna and France.

They write from Hamburgh, that Prince Radzivil having ſolicited the protection of France, his Pruſſian Majeſty was no ſooner informed thereof, than he cauſed it to be notified to the Prince's agent at Berlin, that he declined interfering any farther in the affairs of his maſter.

They write from Toulon, that the delay of the French troops deſigned to embark for Corſica, is now ſaid to be occaſioned by ſome exceptions of the Genoeſe themſelves to the articles of agreement, particularly that of the fifth, which ſtipulates, that the troops of the moſt Chriſtian King ſhall judge and execute, by a court-martial, the orders of the French General, their commandant, with reſpect to the offences of the inhabitants of the places they ſhall occupy, without the civil tribunal's having any power to call them in queſtion. The Corſicans on the iſland, in the intereſt of the Republic, have loudly proteſted againſt this article, having formerly experienced the bitterneſs of ſuch a court of juſtice.

It is very certain that the Spaniards have laid in their claim, and are actually carrying on law-ſuits with the captors for the prizes made at the Havannah when that place was taken; and to ſhew the opinion they muſt have of our ſubmiſſive conduct, they dare lay in a claim of thirty thouſand pounds for the deſtruction of a man of war, that was little more than half built, at that place, and which (with other things of that nature) was particularly ordered to be deſtroyed; and it is notorious the captors did not receive near the ſum from the government for the ſale of all the others taken in that port, that were fine ſhips, and ſent home at near thirty thouſand pounds expence to the captors, and though they might have been ſold to other powers for a greater ſum.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living near Prince Frederick Town, Calvert County, Maryland, on the 1ſt day of October laſt, a Negroe man, named London, about 35 years of age, and about 5 feet 7 inches high, of a yellow complexion, ſtammers in his ſpeech, if examined ſtrictly, bow legged, and when he talks, one corner of his mouth ſtands awry. He may change his name, is very artful, and at no loſs for a plauſible ſtory, is a cooper and carpenter by trade. Whoever takes up the ſaid negroe, if in the county aforeſaid, and brings him to the ſubſcriber, ſhall receive Forty Shillings reward; if taken 30 miles from home, Five Pounds; if out of this province Seven Pounds, and reaſonable charges. As I have ſome reaſon to apprehend the above mentioned negroe has been carried off by ſome ill-diſpoſed perſon, I hereby promiſe a reward of Twenty Piſtoles to any perſon who will diſcover the thief, ſo as he can be convicted.

"The King ſeems to abhor all exceſs in luxury; of which the following inſtance is a proof. Wanting to give his Shoemaker ſome directions, his Majeſty ordered him to be ſent for, and was ſoon after extremely ſurpriſed to ſee enter his apartment, in order to take meaſure of him, a man dreſſed in embroidered velvet. He was, it is true, the Court Shoemaker; but his Majeſty diſmiſſed him, without permitting him to exerciſe, in that ſumptuous habit, the noble and brilliant functions of his office, ſaying at the ſame time (ſeemingly in good-humour however) "What clothes muſt I wear, if people of your profeſſion "dreſs in this manner?"

Among the different improvements intended to take place in Weſt-Florida, we are informed Penſacola bay, from its natural ſituation, deſcribing three fourths of a circle, will be rendered one of the moſt complete and ſafe receptacles for ſhipping of any part of the continent. A range of wharfs, in imitation of thoſe on Charleſtown bay, is to be built of hewn ſtone, with proper offices, which has advanced the price of maſons wages to three dollars a day.

We are aſſured that the following extraordinary accident is an abſolute fact: On the 25th ult. about 6 o'clock in the afternoon, a whirlwind carried away the roofs of all the houſes on the plantation of Thomas Hall, Eſq; at Whitehall, in the county of Bladen, to ſuch a diſtance that they are not yet found. The door poſts of the manſion houſe, a plowſhare, and a cheſt of clothes, were carried 50 yards, and were found at that diſtance; the cheſt without either top or bottom, and many of the clothes which it contained hanging on the tops of trees. Many trees on the plantation were torn up by the roots, and others broke off at different lengths. A handmill ſtone was taken off by violence of the wind, carried a conſiderable diſtance, and broke to pieces. An iron fire-dog carried out of the chimney, upwards of forty yards. The top of a pigeon houſe fell right down, and the body of it was carried upwards of 6 yards diſtant. Part of the roof of the fowl houſe has been found upwards of two miles off; and conſiderable other damage has been done on the place by this wind. One Charles Katter, who lived in a ſmall houſe on the plantation, on hearing the noiſe of the wind, went out of doors, and was much hurt by the fall of part of the houſe; he left within doors his wife, and 6 or 7 children, with a traveller, who all eſcaped unhurt. One of the boards of the upper chamber floor of the manſion houſe now ſtands upright, one end ſunk upwards of two feet in the ground.

WILLIAMSBURG, February 15.

The Betſey, David Conkie maſter, from Liverpool, is arrived in James river, after a tedious and ſtormy paſſage, having been out 12 weeks, and ſeven of them upon this coaſt, during which time he ſaw and ſpoke numbers of veſſels that had ſuffered greatly, among them ſeveral New Englandmen bound to Virginia, and a large ſnow from Dublin for New York, that had been out a long while, and was in great diſtreſs, which he could afford no relief to, it blowing very hard, and a prodigious ſea, and was obliged to part with her at night in a violent gale of wind.

March 1. Captain James Briggs, of the ſchooner Brothers, from Grenada, arrived in York river, informs us, that on the 30th of January, in latitude 31: 30, longitude 69: 35, he ſaw a ſhip to leeward which hove out a ſignal of diſtreſs, whereupon he immediately bore down to her. She proved to be a ſhip from London, called the Planter's Adventure, Miles Lowley commander, which had been out 12 weeks, and had been within two degrees of where ſhe then was ſince Chriſtmas day, the wind being conſtantly weſterly. The ſhip was very leaky; and the Captain told him they had only 4 caſks of water on board, two of which ſtunk ſo that he was afraid they could not be uſed. There were 60 people in her, 40 of them Palatines, ſent by ſubſcription to ſettle our conqueſts; and a Charleſtown Lady, who was very ill, and at the ſame time big with child. All the freſh proviſions in the ſhip being exhauſted, this poor Lady was in a deplorable ſituation; and though it was not in Captain Briggs's power to give them much relief, he himſelf having for ſome time been upon allowance of a biſcuit, half a pound of meat, and quart of water a day, yet he let them have all his live ſtock, ſome rum (of which they were quite out) and ſome other little neceſſaries for the poor lady. The Captain told him he was of opinion they ſhould be obliged to bear away for Bermuda, which he fancies they did, the wind having been weſterly ever ſince.

BOSTON, March 4.

Friday laſt, a Man was taken up and committed to Goal in this Town, charged with being concerned with others in the Murder of the Maſter of a Rhode-Iſland Veſſel, upon the Coaſt of Guiney, ſome Time ago; which Veſſel was afterwards ſeized and confiſcated at ſome Spaniſh Port in the Weſt-Indies, where the Crew were endeavouring to diſpoſe of a Number of Slaves, who, they pretended, had riſen and killed the Captain, &c.

We learn, That the ſeveral French Governors in the Weſt-Indies, have abſolutely forbid all Trade with the Engliſh.

We are aſſured that his Majeſty has nominated ſixteen commiſſioners (who are officers of the crown in different parts of America) to adjuſt and aſcertain the boundaries of New-England and other neighbouring Colonies; and that four of thoſe gentlemen reſide at Halifax, and are ſoon expected from thence at Boſton.--- We have not heard the names of all the commiſſioners, or any other circumſtances relative to this affair, but as ſoon as we can collect a more perfect account, ſhall lay it before the public.

PROVIDENCE, March 2.

Thurſday laſt Capt. Joſeph Crawford, in the Sloop Squirrel of this Port, arrived here in 27 Days from the Weſt-Indies. He informed us, that on the 3d of February, in Lat. 22. 30. N. and Long. 65. 7. W. he fell in with a large Brigantine, which fired upon him under a red Burgee, and ordered him to bring to, hoiſt out his Boat, and come on board, which he found himſelf obliged to do, notwithſtanding it was attended with great Danger:---When he got on board, he found her to be a Spaniſh Veſſel of 14 Carriage Guns, and had about 50 Men; he was there detained about five Hours, and uſed with great Inſolence and Contempt, by the haughty Commander:---During this Time, the Brig's Barge, with a Number of arm'd Men, were diſpatched to overhawl and ſearch the Sloop, which they did effectually, in hopes of finding Money; and after committing ſeveral Diſorders, they returned with the ſmall Booty of 17 Dollars, which they took from one of the Foremaſt Men. Capt. Crawford was then diſcharged; but he could not diſcover whether ſhe was a Guarda Coſta, or uncommiſſioned Pirate.

Laſt Night Capt. Simon Smith arrived here from Antigua, but laſt from St. Chriſtopher's in 25 Days, by whom we have this extraordinary Piece of Intelligence.---That about the 6th of January, while he was at Antigua, two French Sloops, deep loaded with Sugar, &c. were ſent in there as Prizes by one of his Majeſty's Cruiſers of 10 Guns, which ſhe took as they lay at Anchor near the Iſland of St. Vincent, where, it is ſaid, they came on a contraband Trade; and it was generally agreed at Antigua, that they would be condemned to the captors: And that juſt before he ſailed from St. Chriſtopher's, Advice was received there, that an Engliſh Cruiſer that took the French Sloops above-mentioned, was actually taken by a French Man of War, of 74 Guns, and carried into Martinico.--- This Affair (of which we cannot, at preſent, collect any further Particulars) engroſſes all the Converſation of St. Chriſtopher's, where many imagine it will produce very ſerious Conſequences.

The Delawares who fled laſt Winter from the Parties of Indians, ſent out by Sir William, are likewiſe on their Way to him, with ſeveral Priſoners yet remaining among them.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.

Meſſieurs FRANKLIN and HALL,

GENTLEMEN,

Your inſerting the following Letter in your next Paper, will oblige ſeveral of your Readers.

SIR, Philadelphia, March 15, 1765.

I RECEIVED your Letter, and as many in the Country, as well as you, may be anxious to know what Encouragement there is for raiſing Hemp and Flax, you will excuſe my anſwering you in this public Way.---I agree with you, that the Price of Country Produce is low, and likely to be lower; the Iſlands, which are the Market for Flour, are too ſmall to take off the Quantity we can ſpare: The Army, which hath for ſeveral Years kept up the Price of Meat, is now removed; conſequently the Profits of Grazing muſt be much leſs than in Times paſt; the late Act of Parliament has ſo crampt the Exportation of Lumber, that nothing is to be made that Way; for being ſhut out from Ireland, Spain and Liſbon, we have no where to vend them except in the Iſlands, which muſt have them at their own Price.

Hemp and Flax then remain, to the Cultivation of which I am glad to hear you, and ſo many of your Neighbours, have turned your Thoughts and Attention. I wiſh it were more generally fallen into; ſure I am, the Country would quickly experience the Advantage of it: The Price of Flaxſeed is ſo high, that that alone might encourage the raiſing of Flax; nor is there any Danger of its ever becoming a Drug; for the Quality of our Flaxſeed (owing, it may be preſumed, to the Warmth of our Sun, which matures and ripens it to a greater Degree of Perfection) is ſo much ſuperior to Flanders, Dutch or any other, that Ireland and Scotland, the great Markets for it, will never buy any other Flaxſeed, while they can have ours: Beſides, the large Bounty offered by a late Act of Parliament for the Importation of our undreſſed Flax into Great-Britain, will add to the Price of Flax.

For every Ton of rough undreſſed Flax (that is from the Swingle) imported into Great-Britain from any of the Colonies, till the Year 1771, will be given the Sum of Eight Pounds Sterling; from thence to the Year 1778 Six Pounds; and from 1778 to 1785 Four Pounds Sterling; to be paid upon Demand to the Importer, at the Port where the ſame ſhall be landed. The like Bounty is granted for the Importation of bright clean Hemp. You may therefore aſſure yourſelf (I ſpeak from good Authority) that any Quantity whatever will meet with a ready Sale and good Price in our Market. Thus not only the Seed, but likewiſe the Flax bearing a high Price, cannot but render this as valuable a Branch of Huſbandry as any that can be fallen upon.

Hemp has been long noted for the Profit it produced to the Farmer, even when ſold at 4d. or 5d. a Pound, how much more when it is ſold at near double that Price; beſides, I am well aſſured that Hempſeed, if gathered, would bear a very high Price; at preſent it is 45s. per Buſhel, and ready Sale at that Price.

With Regard to the Trouble and Expence of cleaning Flax or Hemp, theſe may be greatly leſſened by a very ſimple Machine, which will not coſt above Twenty Shillings, and with which a Man may with great Eaſe ſwingle 60 Pounds a Day. I ſhall perſuade one of our Joiners to make a Model of one of them, and in my next inform you where you, or any of your Neighbours, may be ſupplied with them.

I muſt not omit to inform you, and deſire you to acquaint your Neighbours, as a preſent Encouragement, that if any have Flax for Sale, and will bring it to William Brown, of this City, he will give ready Money for any Quantity of it, either from the Swingle or Hatchel, though he rather prefers that from the Swingle."

By the Poſt from New-York we have Advice, that Captain Benſon is arrived there in ſix Weeks from Dover, but brought no News Papers with him: That the Duke Packet, with the January Mail, had ſailed from Falmouth for New-York: And that Captain Montgomery, alſo for the ſame Place, left London before he ſailed.

We have alſo Advice of the Reverend Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD having left Georgia, and of his Arrival in Charles-Town, South-Carolina, where, as uſual, he was preaching to crowded and affected Auditories.

We are requeſted to give this publick Notice, that the Schooner Sally (Woolſey Burton, late Maſter, bound to Indian River from Amboy, who, with his Hands, were taken up by a Schooner, Thomas May, Maſter, and carried into Virginia, as mentioned in Number 1838 of this Paper) was left 45 Leagues off the Capes of Virginia, her Sails, Anchors and Cables, being taken on board ſaid Schooner; ſhe is a Pink-ſterned Veſſel, of about 70 Tons Burden, with her Boom raiſed for a Jury Maſt, having loſt her Mainmaſt.

On Saturday laſt two Women, named FULLER and KNIGHT, ſtood one Hour in the Pillory here, for keeping Bawdy-Houſes, purſuant to Sentence paſſed on them at the Court of Quarter Seſſions, when they were alſo fined, and obliged to find Security for their good Behaviour.

GEGRGIA, ſs.

Before me, the Hon. Noble Jones, Eſq; ſenior aſſiſtant juſtice for the province aforeſaid, perſonally appeared James Edward Powell, and Grey Elliott, Eſquires, members of his Majeſty's Honourable Council for the province aforeſaid, who being duly ſworn, declare, that they have carefully examined the accounts containing the receipts and diſburſements for the uſe of the Orphan-houſe in the ſaid province, and that, comparing them with the ſeveral vouchers, they find the ſame not only juſt and true in every reſpect, but kept in ſuch a clear and regular manner as does honour to the managers of that houſe, and that on a careful examination of the ſeveral former audits, it appears that the ſum of two thouſand and ſixty-four pounds five ſhillings and ten pence, has at ſeveral times been given by the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield for the uſe of the ſaid houſe, and that in the whole the ſum of twelve thouſand eight hundred and fifty-five pounds five ſhillings and four pence three farthings ſterling, has been laid out for the ſaid houſe ſince the 7th of January, 1738-9 to this day; alſo that it does not appear that any charge has ever been made by the ſaid Rev. Mr. Whitefield, either for travelling charges, or any other expences whatever; and that no charge of ſalary has been made for any perſon whatever employed or concerned in the management of the ſaid houſe.

Signed, JAMES EDWARD POWELL, GREY ELLIOTT,

CHARLES-TOWN (South-Carolina) Feb. 9.

SATURDAY laſt arrived here Capt. Cornelius Hinſon, from Jamaica; who on the 20th paſt fell in with the wreck of the ſhip Dolphin, of and for Liverpool, from Jamaica, George Johnſon maſter, which had been ſtranded the night before, near Salt-Key, on Crooked-Iſland. Capt. Hinſon ſaved ſome of the cargo, ſails and rigging, and took off twenty of the people, which he brought with him. Capt. John Seymour, in the ſloop Phœnix, of and for Bermuda, alſo ſaved ſome of the cargo and people, which he has carried thither.

Letters from Weſt-Florida of the 17th of Dec. adviſe, that a peace has been made with all the Indian nations upon the river Miſſiſippi, as high as fort Natchee; that the only enemy above that poſt, are the Arkanſa's, who had promiſed to meet Lieut. Campbell at Point Coopee the next full moon; a ſafe navigation is now opened from the Miſſiſippi by the rivers Iberville and Amit to Lake Maurepas, a paſſage of great conſequence to that province; that a fort is to be erected on point Iberville, now point Richmond, about 36 leagues from New-Orleans, which will compleatly command the river, and greatly facilitate the gaining poſſeſſion of the Illinois. That the 34th regiment is to go to the Illinois, and the 22d home; and that a great number of German and French emigrants are ſoon expected at Mobille, to ſettle the fruitful banks of the various rivers in that province.

The ſmall nations of Indians on the Miſſiſippi, who ſtopped major Loftus's progreſs, ſeem now better affected to the Britiſh nation, the ſuperintendant having ſent a deputy among them.

The 34th regiment, commanded by major Farmer, is preparing to take poſſeſſion of the Illinois, the ſuperintendant ſends two gentlemen, well acquainted with the Indians on that rout, to go before the troops, and make the path ſtraight. The Spaniſh troops were not arrived at New Orleans, but were hourly expected, and are ſaid to be in number 4000. Mr. D'abaddie the French governor, gives the ſtrongeſt aſſurances of his readineſs to facilitate every meaſure neceſſary for our taking poſſeſſion of the Illinois, and other poſts on the Miſſiſippi. His Catholic Majeſty has appointed M. Iſaſſi firſt, and M. Villemont ſecond in command, in his new acquired country of Louiſiana.

Feb. 13. On Monday laſt arrived here in the ſhip Planter's-Adventure, Miles Lowley, maſter, from London, the laſt of Stumpel's Germans, being in number about 40. Though the ſhip had a very long paſſage they have been very healthy.

The ſhip Sea-Nymph, John Grant, maſter, is ſailed from Georgetown in this province for London, having on board 42,909 lb. of indico, beſides deerſkins, &c. ſaid to be the richeſt veſſel that ever ſailed from that port.

Feb. 27. Letters from the Cherokee country, inform us of the return of Ottaſſite or Judd's-Friend, who went out at the deſire of the Superintendant, in order to intercept the ſupplies ſaid to be going up the Miſſiſippi from the French to the enemy Indians, and that he had brought in two Frenchmen priſoners, who were ſpeedily to be ſent to Fort Prince-George. Fourteen Cherokees, viz. five men, and nine women and children, were lately killed by ſome Indians who live near the Miſſiſippi.

On Thurſday laſt the Reverend Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD arrived here from Georgia; he preached on Sunday and this day in the New England-meeting, where he preaches again on Friday morning.

March 6. On Sunday laſt, and this day, the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD preached in the New England-meeting to numerous audiences. On Friday next he is to preach in the pariſh church of St. Andrew, near Aſhley-ferry, and on Sunday he preaches again in the New England-meeting.

Several white men from the weſtern parts of this province and North-Carolina, have lately gone into the Cherokee ſettlement, and killed beaver, which occaſions ſome uneaſineſs, as it is expreſly contrary to treaty; and we hear the Cherokees have complained of it; but in the ſame modeſt terms they have adopted for two or three years paſt.

WILMINGTON (in NORTH-CAROLINA) Jan. 23.

A brig, Capt. Charles Shaw, from New-York, and a brig from Boſton, both for Newbern, are loſt on Cape Hatteras, the crews are ſaved.

Feb. 6. Since our laſt arrived here the ſhip Boyd, Capt. William Dunlap, in 20 days from the Havannah: Captain Dunlap ſpoke with a boat from the brig Polly, Capt. Tudor, belonging to New-York, but laſt from New-Providence, bound to Penſacola; which veſſel was drove aſhore on the Beminnes, one of the Bahama iſlands, on Sunday, the 13th of January paſt. She had 45 of the king's troops on board, all ſafe; but it is thought the veſſel will be loſt.

WILLIAMSBURGH, February 22.

We are deſired to inſert the following Account from Maryland, viz.

THAT they have lately diſcovered a new ſort of Coffee, equally good, much wholeſomer, and vaſtly cheaper, than the foreign coffee; it is made of common Rye, and when rightly burnt does not differ from the other either in looks or ſmell, and ſo nearly reſembles it in taſte that ſeveral have drank it without perceiving any difference, or ſuſpecting the miſtake, until they were told of it.

If perſons of figure and diſtinction would uſe it, the ſanction of their example would recommend it to the common people; and when brought into general uſe, it would ſave America, at leaſt 100,000 l. a year; which is a ſum worth ſaving, now our trade is clogged, and our country deeply involved in debt.

Is it not a needleſs expenſe to make uſe of only foreign coffee, which by reaſon of its high duty coſts 15 or 16 pence, when every farmer and planter may raiſe as good for leſs than a penny a pound; for there is no land ſo poor but will eaſily produce rye.

But this new Coffee is not only recommended by its cheapneſs, but is equally valuable for its wholeſomeneſs; for as rye muſh, or pudding, is preſcribed for a cough, and highly eſteemed in a conſumption, of conſequence Rye Coffee muſt be equally wholeſome and ſalutary, and therefore preferable to the foreign coffee, which is univerſally judged to dry the blood too much.

It is therefore hoped that this diſcovery will be for the publick good, and that all who are friends to œconomy and frugality will generally uſe it; and if it were not quite ſo good as the other, yet the conſideration of the unſpeakable good it will do our country, ſhould reconcile it to every patriot palate.

Since the current of our trade is reduced to ſo low an ebb, it is high time to explode that antiquated proverb, which has been ſo long regarded by Gentlemen, to the great injury of the continent, though it ſays, "Far "fetcht, and dear bought, is fit for Ladies."

And we hope all the fair ſex, who have their breaſts warmed with love to their country, will admit no foreign coffee to their tables, but ever give their native produce the preference.

St. JOHN (in Antigua) January 31.

From Barbados, we hear of the death of CHRISTOPHER IRWIN, Eſq; the ingenious inventor of the Marine Chair, and the author of a new projection for a Sugar-Mill, for the encouragement of which a law has been paſſed in Barbados; but as ſince he has been at the other Iſlands, and died of a malignant fever a few days after his return to Barbados, the project was never executed, and may, probably (to the misfortune of theſe Iſlands) die with him.

Mr. Irwin had been poſſeſſed of a conſiderable eſtate in Ireland, was of an amiable character in private life, an able mathematician, and had a moſt extenſive knowledge in the mechanical arts. He came out with Admiral Tyrrell, to make further Trials of his Marine Chair, in conjunction with Mr. Maſkelyne and Mr. Harriſon, the other two candidates for the Longitude reward; and perhaps it will at laſt be found that his invention deſerves the moſt from the public, for it is adapted to all the different methods of finding the Longitude at ſea, whereas Mr. Harriſon's is applicable but to one, and Mr. Maſkelyne's cannot be perfect till the theory of the moon's motion be better known, and even in both their methods the Marine Chair muſt be very uſeful and neceſſary.

PORTSMOUTH (New-Hampſhire) March 8.

We hear from Newington, that Mrs. Elizabeth Hight died there laſt week, and was interr'd agreable to the new mode now eſtabliſhed in this town; ſhe was but a few months ſhort of 100 years of age. What is remarkable, her conſtitution was ſuch, ſhe never required bleeding nor phyſicking during her whole life, and ſcarcely ever ſick. She had four huſbands, by whom ſhe had 8 children, and from them has ſprang about 300 grand-children and great grand-children, moſt of whom are now living.

PROVIDENCE, March 9.

Yeſterday Morning as ſome People were firing at a Mark, in this Town, one of the Muſkets, that was loaded with a Ball, accidentally diſcharg'd itſelf, by which Mr. Peleg Rhodes, of Cranſton, who ſtood before the Muzzle, had his left Arm terribly ſhattered.

We hear from Uxbridge, that on the firſt Inſt. as ſome Boys were at play near a Saw-Mill, in that Place, one of them a Youth about fourteen Years of Age, Son of Mr. James Yates, unhappily fell between the Flume and Water Wheel, which inſtantly cruſh'd him to Death.

NEWPORT, March 11.

A Sloop from the Weſt-Indies, for New-London, put in here laſt Saturday Evening, and ſailed again Yeſterday Morning. She had been from Barbados 12 Days; at which Iſland, the Maſter informs, 8 or 10 Veſſels, juſt before he ſailed, were ſeized by the Officers of the King's Cuſtoms, for not being able each to produce a Certificate that they had given in the Bond required for Melaſſes, agreeable to the late Act of Parliament.

The Maſter of the above Sloop ſays, That he heard nothing of one of his Majeſty's Cruiſers having been taken by a French Man of War; ſo that it is concluded the Advice received at St. Kitts, of ſuch a Capture, and brought hither by Capt. Smith, was without Foundation.

NEW-YORK, March 21.

Friday Capt. Wright arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, in 30 Days; he ſailed from thence in Company with the Captains Shoals and Elder, of and for this Port, who may be hourly expected; Capt. Wright left the following Veſſels in the Bay, viz. Snow Induſtry, Captain Kenney, belonging to Jamaica, ready to ſail for this Port; the Captains Morris, Colgan, Fairchild, Turner, and Smith, alſo of this Place, and ſeveral Veſſels belonging to Philadelphia and Rhode-Iſland.

Capt. Wright ſailed alſo in Company with Captain Oſborn, belonging to Philadelphia, bound to Holland, and parted with him off the Weſt End of Cuba, all well.

The North River, which has been ſo long cloſed up with Ice this Winter, is now open, ſeveral Sloops from Albany having arrived laſt Saturday and Sunday, and others ſailed for that Place.

On Saturday Night laſt James Brumton, and William Ritchie, 2 Sailors belonging to the Garland Man of War, being aſhore, and getting very much intoxicated with Liquor, went to Barnes's Wharff, in order to go on board their Ship, and ſhoving one another in Jeſt, both fell over the Dock, and were drowned; and on Sunday Morning their Bodies were taken up, when the Coroner's Inqueſt ſat, and brought in their Verdict Accidental.

PHILADELPHIA, March 28.

On Saturday laſt his Honour the GOVERNOR ſet out for Carliſle, attended by ſome Gentlemen, in order to enquire, we hear, into the Cauſe of a Quantity of Goods being deſtroyed by a Number of Men near Sideling Hill.

By Captain Barnes, from Providence, we have an Account of the following Veſſels having put in there by Streſs of Weather, viz. Brig Jane, Captain Cordis, from Guadaloupe, in November laſt, in the Latitude of Bermuda, met with a ſevere Gale of Wind, in which he ſprung a Leak, and loſt Part of his Rudder.---Schooner Catherine, Captain Willoughby, from Montſerrat for South-Carolina.---Captain Crocker, in a Sloop from Boſton for North-Carolina.---Captain Waterman, in a Sloop from Virginia for Madeira.----A Schooner, Captain Ellis, from New-York for North-Carolina.-----Sloop Hampton, Captain Harris, from Boſton for South-Carolina.---And the Brig Sea-Horſe, Captain Bryant, from Cape Nichola Mould for Boſton.

By Captain Reed, in about ſeven Weeks from Gibraltar, we have Advice, that all was very quiet there, the Garriſon healthy, and well ſupplied with all Sorts of Proviſion.

Monday laſt Captain Wood arrived here from Liſbon. In the Letters by him there is not the leaſt Notice taken, we hear, of any Diſturbances between the Portugueſe and Spaniards; ſo that the Reports of that Kind we have lately had, it is thought, were premature.

And by Captain Magnus Miller, from Jamaica, we learn, that the Riſing ſaid to be among the Negroes in that Iſland was intirely falſe, having heard nothing of it, though he was a conſiderable Time in the Place.

On Saturday Night laſt came on here a very ſevere Snow Storm, the Wind blowing very high, which continued all the next Day, when, it is believed, there fell the greateſt Quantity of Snow that has been known (conſidering the advanced Seaſon) for many Years paſt; it being generally ſaid to be about two Feet, or two Feet and a Half, on a Level, and in ſome Places deeper. A great Number of Trees were deſtroyed by it, ſome tore up by the Roots, others broke off; and the Roads are rendered ſo bad, and dangerous, that there has been hardly any travelling ſince.

There will be an EXAMINATION of Candidates for Degrees To-morrow in the COLLEGE-HALL, in the Preſence of the TRUSTEES, and any other Perſons, who may chuſe to attend the ſame.

☞ SIMON HUFTY, the Jerſey Rider, having left off riding, the Gentlemen that uſed to have their News-Papers carried by him, are requeſted to give the Printers Notice, whether they deſign to employ another Man, by which they will know whether to continue printing their Papers or not.
